Discuss Recognition of William E. Crowell, Jr.'s Service to District as Moderator

Ms. McMahon advised the Board that Mr. Crowell has served as District Moderator since being first elected in 1965 and will complete fifty-five years of service. Ms. McMahon speculated that Mr. Crowell may hold the record for the longest serving elected official in Massachusetts. There was a consensus that this momentous occasion should be celebrated and that perhaps it would be appropriate to request a proclamation by the State Legislature by contacting State Representative Tim Whelan.
